A note about Electronics

We provide every camper the opportunity to completely immerse themselves in the natural surroundings offered here at the Outdoor Education Center. Electronic distractions serve to hinder that goal. Also, as these items are usually expensive to replace and don't have a very high survival rate when they come in contact with water, dust, dirt, spilled liquids, being dropped, stepped or sat upon, etc ... leave 'em home.

A note about nice clothes, teddy bears & snacks.

OEC campers get DIRTY!! Please do not come to camp with any clothing or footwear that MUST stay clean! Occasionally a camper will bring a teddy bear or other beloved item as personal-security for an overnight adventure away from home. One a few very sad occasions, this item has been lost or gone missing. Please DO NOT send such irreplaceable items to camp. No food, drinks, candy or other SMELLABLES" are allowed inside sleeping areas. We don't want to invite any uninvited, wild critters.
